Fellow Kiwanians,

The work of any foundation is to inform, educate, and answer its members. Expect Kiwanis Foundation of New England (KFNE) to use any means possible to do just that. Today I use this missile to answer the question I have heard the most. It is fitting that the most asked question {perception} involves the most visible aspect of the foundation... the Red Jacket.

The Puritan Clothing Company does not sell our red jackets retail. They are considered a special order and very basic. No styles here like at a Macys, so alterations may be needed. My Red Jacket needed alteration {sleeves} so I want folks to understand there is no bias. In the end most Red Jackets are club awards and it seems to me a small inconvenience for the deserving Kiwanian.

We need to remember what those jackets stand for ...

- * Tangibly - our partnership with Tufts, one of the great teaching hospitals,
- * Clinical care, a wonderful climate to train future doctors,
- * Relevant research in pediatric trauma, and
- * Outreach with the Kiwanis family to improve our communities.

Personally my jacket reminds me of all that has been accomplished, but that so much more has to be done.

To paraphrase a famous line "if it does not fit you must alter".

Please join with me in making our foundation the very best it can be.

-Al Paul
